Mcwill be recalled, said that when and Call finished last in the First Special saturday it was due to the fact that a startling form reversal. But whether ember 17 could not be learned yesterday lotter was not wholly in disfavor was when he rode McGinnis's Castlewood as ently as last Wednesday. Form someris of this kind may be explained to the the case that they cause no end of finding on the part of the public. Welhourne had a world of speed yesterday and might have equalled the track record for the distance. Anybody could have ridden him

When Perseverance, by Meddler, a three-Vehrourne practically unbacked the bookmakers leaped for joy. Thousands were deaned up by them on Yankee Girl, who was hammered from 6 to 5 to even money. also on Miss Crawford, who was steadily backed even though she went up from 8 to 5 Yankee Girl, as did nearly all the other wise operators, who said some harsh things when Miller put up a bungling ride. But it was not a general surprise, this poor bit of horsemanship, for Miller in a long distance race is no better than a green stable boy. Welbourne, by the way, committed what looked like a real foul when he jammed Perseverance to the rail near the far turn and when G. Swain, who rode the Whitney gelding, went to the stewards with a protest he was applauded. But there was nothing

Trainer Rows of the Keene stable told his friends that Suffrage with top weight would surely win the Culver Handicap. play on the crack Voter mare, who at one period of the speculation was as good as The smart set went either to Brook dale Nymph, backed from 8 to 6, to King's Paughter, lowered from 10 to 8, or to Bat Masterson, reduced a point to 8. But with any kind of an even break at the post there would have been nothing to it but Suffrage. who gave twelve pounds by the scale to King's Daughter and three to Brookdale Hendzarrs, Faust and Dreamer were all well backed to show in this event.

The odd part about the betting on the fifth race was the fact that the wise players steered clear of Temaceo, 7 to 5 favorite, and went either to Acrobat, at 2, or Wes, backed down to 7 to 2. R. F. Carman bet enough to clean up nearly $10,000 on Acrobat, who had his usual speed. The Western crowd stood to win a bunch on Wes, who experienced the hardest kind of racing luck.

There was a spectacular plunge on Rialto in the last race. Jack Joyner said the Watercress colt would win in a gallop even with the erratic Horner up. Accordingly the plungers all got busy and poured the money was backed down to 9 to 5, many of the layers rubbing the price and declining further wagers. But Horner did what he has often one before, pulled up at the start because he was fast asleep. Live Wire, the logical choice, opened at 8 to 5, but went up to 5 to 2. He was well backed at that, particularly for the place. Chulita was a supposed good thing and was reduced from 4 to 7 to 2. hid McCoy outfit put up a green stable boy on Bellwether and got a price, but that was Arasee was again played by Sam Emery and his friends, who broke better than even, as most of the coin was to show.

The third event was an open betting affair. The Patchogue Stable's Lotus was played from 8 to 1 down to 13 to 5 favorite, Owner W. H. Du Bois having a swell wager down. Frank J. Farrell, James Gaffney, Joe Cassidy and others backed Security from 4 to 7 to 2 and cleaned up nicely. Robin Hood, the lager beer horse, was supposed to be on edge and was played from 4 to 16 to 5. Preen, now owned by Barney Schreiber's trainer, H. R. Brandt, was well taken across the boards. Tom McDowell's Berwick was backed from Carman did not bet much on Flem ing, who went back from 5 to 7. Trouble waker got plenty of support three ways at s and 4. On the result the books were all big winners, chiefly because of th defeat of Lotus and Robin Hood, who were heavily backed than any of the other

With King Cobalt scratched and Miller on Trank J. Farrell's colt, James B. Brady, the in the first race. So the plungers grabb o and sent it in so steadily that Brads was soon beaten down to 9 to 20. Beardall was played across the boards, his price drop-ping from 10 to 8, while Blue Heron was taken to show. McCarthy, a Western boy, put up a weird ride on Sanguine, who was heavily *Apported for the place.

Miller is finding it a hard matter just now to get below 103 pounds. His contract with T. H. Williams for next year calls for 105. f Toy Boy had won the third race J. W. Fuller, the Texan, would have taken a wagon-load of coin from the books. Fuller got 40 to 1 for his bet and Toy Boy looked like a winner until he blew up in the stretch.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

TRAINS FOR RETURNING TOURISTS.

The Pennsylvania Railroad's through train service to the West appeals to the homebound tourist, both from abroad and from the Eastern resorts.

With its matchless roadbed and its complete protective equipment, the high grade of its trains makes it the way of ease and elegance. The Limited trains offer every essential of comfort and convenience that a discriminating taste dictates, and many of the little luxuries of life are not overlooked in their appointment. Their drawing-rooms, compartments, and the observation parlor are particularly adapted to the use of families, while the men find in addition all the conveniences of the club.

The "Pennsylvania Special," leaving New York in the afternoon, is the quick train to the West-eighteen hours to Chicago. "The Pennsylvania Limited," leaving in the morning, isa little less rapid in speed but of the same high grade in other respects. The "Chicago Limited," leaving at 4.55 P. M., is a train of high repute.

The "St. Louis Limited," leaving in the afternoon, is the finest train as well as the quickest to the Southwest.

The home-goers are happy who take these star trains of the "Standard Railroad of America."

BOSTON, Sept. 27.-The status of betting BOSTON, Sept. 27.—The status of betting on horse racing in Massachusetts was definitely established to-day when Frank J. Sullivan, Daniel J. Morgan and Albert Rosenthal of Boston were each fined Suby Judge Wait in the Superior Court at Dedham, having previously been convicted of violating the gaming laws. The times were paid. The case originated during the Grand Circuit trotting races at Rendville in August, 1903. At that time the three defendants were arrested. They were convicted in the District Court and the Superior Court and then the cases went to the Superior Court and then the cases went to the Superior Court and the statutes, the defendants contending that the statutes did not mean to prohibit the selling of pools or registering of beta. The Supreme Court decided against this contention and sent the case back to the Superior Court for judgment on the verdics.

Lozier No. 3 led at the end of the third hour with 146 miles.

Considerable excitement was caused in the afternoon when at the conclusion of the eighteen lap motordrome championship of about twenty-five miles, the Stearns car driven by charles Schlipp of Cleveland went through the outside fence on the first turn and coasted down the bank onto the field. Schlipp had just finished third in the motordrome championship and the tire on the right front wheel of his car exploded after he had traveiled a few yards, with the result that the car shot through the sham fence of white bunting without injuring either of the drivers. Many of the men among the spectators tried to climb the fence and run to the scene of the accident and the track officials had a great deal of trouble in keeping the morbid ones where they belonged. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the accident was the impromptu footrace between the medical advisers, Drs. Hoag, McDuffle, Kellogg and Generich, in which Dr. Hoag, who was in good training after his experiences on the Glidden tour this year, won by a couple of yards, but luckily their services were not needed, for Schlipp and his mechanic walked back to the track.

There were seven starters, of whom two were added entries, theory, Mark with Walter C. Allen's 60 horse-power De Dietrich took the lead right after the start and kept it for eight laps. The tire on his right front wheel exploded in the ninth lap and Charles Schlipp in Edgar Gibbs Murphy's 30-60 horse-power Stearns took the lead at the end of the ninth lap. Guy Vaughan, with A. J. Vaughan's time for the eighteen laps, about twent eighteen haps, about twenty-five miles, was 27 minutes 54 1-5 seconds. Schlipp was third.

The first event of the afternoon was the three lap race for Ford runabouts, in which there were five starters. Frank Dunnell won from fius Holtzer in a minutes 7 seconds. Six riders started in the three lap motor cycle race, which was run under the sanction of the Federation of American Motorcyclists, with President R. G. Betts of the F. A. M. acting as referee. The event was open to all single cylinder machines of less than 30½ inches piston displacement. Watter Goerke of Brooklyn, 2½ horse-power Indian, won by about 200 feet from John L. Sidell of Springfield, Mass., 1½, horse-power Indian, was third. Seven of the Darracq taxicabs lined up for a two lap race, in which the machine driven by Slephen Brown finished first. No time was taken.

The eight lap road race over the Allen course was open to gasolene cars, either fully equipped or stripped, provided the bore of the cylinders did not exceed 5½ inches. There were three starters: Wallace H. Owen in as horse-power American Mors, Ned Crane in J. E. De Mar's to horse-power English Daimler and Charles Trewin in L. H. Perlman's 50 horse-power Welch. Owen's long experience as a road driver slood him in good stead, as he won by more than one lap in the eight lap race, his time being 22 minutes 13 seconds.

George Robertson, driving E. Russell Thomas's 120 horse-power Vanderbill cup Hotchkiss racer, made the best time in the one unite record trials, driving the big yellow painted racer a mile in 52 seconds. William Wailace, with a 60-80 horse-power Darraco, made two trials, one in 61 2-5 seconds and another one later in 54 seconds. William McCulla, driving the 80 horse-power Darraco, with which Hemery won the Vanderbilt cup race in 1905, made a mile in 56 1-5 seconds. Stanley T. Kellogg of Springfield made a mile in 59 seconds with a 7 horse-power Indian motor cycle. A. G. Chapple, 3 horse-power N. S. U. motor cycle, made a mile in 1 minute 23 1-5 seconds.

CRICKETERS BAT WELL. Marylebone Eleven Scores 222 Against

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—The concluding game in this country of the Marylebone cricket team of England was commenced to-day on the grounds of the Marion C. C. at Haverford. The visitors had as their oppo-nents the Gentlemen of Philadelphia, who were strengthened by the addition of E. M. Cregar and P. N. Leroy. W. P. O'Neil and G. R. White were left off the list, but the other players were the same that represented all Philadelphia in the first game in this city.
Uniformly good batting was seen on both sides in the day's play, no less than six of the Englishmen getting double figures, while each of the three Amercians who faced the visitors bowling did well with the bat. G. visitors bowling did well with the bat. G. H. Simpson Hayward ran up the largest individual score, with an excellent inning of 44. J. W. Douglas and G. T. Branston showed to advantage in scores of 33 and 381 spectively. L. P. Collins came next with 28. S. J. Snooke followed with 23 and K. O. Goldie added 19. H. V. Hordern and E. M. Cregar were the most successful bowlers for Philadelphia the former having a record of four wickets for 68 runs, while the latter captured 4 for 78 and was unlucky in having catches missed. The fielding of the local team was good, only R. H. Patton falling down in this respect, and he had two chances which he failed to accept. C. C. Morris was in fine form and hit well for 28 not out, while P. N. Leroy put together 18 and J. B. King just managed to get in the double figure column. The score: Marylebone, 222; Philadelphia, 60 for 2 wickets.

shook off the Philadelphias. The Tiger and the White Elephant grappled in deadly embrace in Philadelphia and the first round of the crucial series went to the Tiger. Here in New York the New Yorks lost a game to the frowns that they appeared to have on ice. The Chicagos won in Boston and the Washingtons and Clevelands divided a double header. The results.

There was plenty of hitting at American League Park even though it was a dark day. Despite some of the worst base running ever seen outside the Non Compos Mentis League the St. Louis team won. They won by main force. At inside play their work did not compare with New York's, but they outslugged the New Yorks. The uncertainty of the outcome and the constant ring of base hits made the fracas very entertaining.

The Browns were not long in showing that they had Newton's measure, but in spite of the fact that the Doc was ripe picking for them he was kept in the box long enough for the St. Louisans to wipe out New York's lead and bang out a victory in the last inging. Then, with the game gone—though the locals came back strong in their half of the ninth—Newton was run on a siding by Engineer Griffith. The game was frittered away in the pitcher's box. Symptons that such would be the case loomed up with unmistakable clearness but were not heeded.

Spencer's batting and Chase's all-round playing illumined the conflict. Chase made a brilliant coup in the third inning. Niles was on second when Stone grounded to Williams. Williams threw Stone out at first, and the eagle eyed Chase, seeing that Niles had overrun third, whipped the ball over to Moriarty with lightning quickness. Moriarty slapped it on Niles before the latter could get back.

Philadeliphia, Sepi. 27. The first game of the series between the Detroits and Athletics which will have an important bearing on the pennant was played to-day and was won by the Detroits. The rival managers saved up their star pitchers for this battle, but both Plank and Donovan were hit freely, Donovan more so than Plank. The Detroits put their nits together in groups more effectively than the home team, however, the latter being unfortunate in hitting into double plays at critical moments.

The scoring began in the fifth inning. The Tigers garacred two on O'Leary's double, Jones's safe bunt, Schaefer's force of Jones, on which O'Leary scored, Schaefer's steal and a two bagger by Crawford. The locals picked up one in the same inning on Oldring's two bagger and Powers's single.

Donovan singled in the seventh inning. Cobins made a wild throw of Jones's grounder and Schaefer came along with a double that scored Donovan and Jones. Crawford sent schaefer in with a single. The Athletics made three in their half on a double by Plank, a single by Hartsel, a pass to Nicholls, a fumble by Coughlin and a hit by Davis. Then came a double play. In the eighth inning Donovan was again effective with meu on bases, the home team having three on and only one out and not being able to squeeze in a run. The score:
